Temporary Importation Legal Framework

- According to Mexican Law the temporary importation of vehicles, motorcycles, sea vessels and motorhomes is regulated by:
- Customs Law. (Artícle 106 Fracciones IV, Inciso a, V, Inciso c y d)
- Regulations of the Customs Law. (Artícles 139, 143 y 144)
- Regulations of Foreign Trade for 2012.
 (4.2.5., 4.2.6. y 4.2.7.)

Temporary importation of vehicles, motorcycles, sea vessels and motorhomes

The Mexican Tax Agency (SAT) through the General Administration of Customs (AGA), controls the temporary importation of:

I.Vehícles.

II.Motorcycles.

III.Sea vessels.

IV. Motorhomes.

This service is granted through The Army, Airforce and Navy Bank of Mexico, S.N.C. (Banjercito), at the Importation and Entry Control Modules at the border - CIITEV.

Banjercito is responsible for issuing the permits and stickers that verify the temporary importation of vehicles, motorcycles, sea vessels and motorhomes.

In addition, they process the reimbursement of the guarantee deposit when the vehicle is returned within the authorized timeframe.

Who can apply for a temporary importation permit?

Foreign citizens authorized by the National Immigration Institute (INM) the following immigration conditions:

Permanent Importation

What is the permanent importation of vehicles?

Is a procedure by which a vehicle will be able to stay legally in Mexico for an unlimited period of time. This is done through and Importation Request made by an authorized Customs Broker.

To consult a list of authorized Customs Agents please visit: www.claa.org.mx, www.caaarem.org.mx; or by phone to 01 (55) 1107 - 8515 and 01 (55) 3300 - 7500.

Permanent Importation

Application procedure:

- The vehicle importation must be done at northern border Customs offices or maritime traffic Customs ports, through an importation request made by an authorized customs broker.
- The importation request will be for the vehicle only and cannot support any additional contents or merchandise.
- You must pay the required taxes, federal duties and applicable state taxes, just like any vehicle that is sold whithin Mexico. These fees are deposited into your customs broker's bank account.

Permanent Importation

Documentation you must submit to your Customs Agent:

- Property title in the name of importer or endorsed to the name of importer as proof of ownership.
- Official ID of importer.
- Proof of address.
- Sticker or photo of the vehicle's VIN number.

An approximation of the import taxes to be paid can be consulted in the following website:
